

Please leave the telephone privcy laws alone. Let us have our family dinners and what short time in the evening that we have with our children to be uninterupted by annoying telemarketing calls.